Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

Our house has 11 en-suite rooms, one of which is a flat and is suitable for a couple. All of our rooms come with a small kitchenette area allowing you to maintain your independence, and are left unfurnished so you can personalise your room to your taste and make it feel like home.

Macgregor House has plenty of space with a big and light conservatory and extensive gardens, the perfect place to relax, make new friends over tea and coffee or meet with family and friends. Our caring and dedicated professional housekeepers provide a home cooked lunch and high tea which is served in the communal dining room and gives residents an opportunity to socialise.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at MacGregor House.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why MacGregor House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at MacGregor House.
