Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

Abbeyfield House provides our residents the privacy of their own accommodation combined with the companionship of others and support of the dedicated house staff in a friendly and welcoming environment.

Each room is provided decorated with carpets but unfurnished so you can bring your own furniture to make it feel like home. Rooms have views over-looking the gardens or open straight into the gardens. All rooms have ensuite or access to the sole use of a bathroom and there is a communal lounge/dining area plus a large garden. For those who are green-fingered, you are welcome to get involved and enjoy the garden as much as you'd like.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at Abbeyfield House.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why Abbeyfield House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at Abbeyfield House.

“These aspects of life at an Abbeyfield Sheltered House sets us apart from other providers.”
