

Woodlands

Sheltered Housing in Swanage

Welcome to Woodlands

Set on a quiet residential road, our Abbeyfield house is situated in the heart of popular coastal town, Swanage.

At Woodlands we offer a home from home experience and our staff are crucial to creating this homely, friendly and welcoming environment.

Delicious, daily home-cooked meals and communal area housekeeping are organised and all your household bills are included in the cost, leaving you free to enjoy your time.

If you choose to live with us, you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, socialising in shared lounges and dining areas, and a beautiful garden to relax in.

Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

Woodlands provides older people the privacy of their own accommodation combined with the companionship of others, home cooked meals, and the security and support of the dedicated house staff.

Originally built as a family home, Woodlands maintains many the family atmosphere today for its nine residents.

We have eight en-suite rooms and one one-bedroom bungalow. All rooms are provided unfurnished allowing residents to add a personal touch when they move in.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at Woodlands.

Please do get in touch
