Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

We hold a number of events and activities for you to get involved with if you wish including afternoon teas, coffee mornings, and live entertainers. We have a group of young volunteers that come along each week to spend time with the residents, and have a very special relationship with the local primary school. With fantastic links to our local community, our annual Strawberry tea has become a popular local event in Crosby.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at The Old Vicarage.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why The Old Vicarage is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at The Old Vicarage.
